

Pre-conference symposium at the NordicEpi, Copenhagen, 2024:

The Danish National Birth Cohort: a resource for life-course epidemiology

June 12, at 9-12, Center for Sundhed og Samfund (CSS), Lok. 35.3.13

For registration, please send your full name and e-mail address to: nadia.mikkelsen@sund.ku.dk
Registration deadline: 7th June 2024. There is no registration fee.

PROGRAM

9.00-9.10 Coffee and croissants

9.10 Welcome by Anne-Marie Nybo Andersen

9.15 – 10.15 Session 1

Invited talks:

- Introduction to the DNBC by Anne-Marie Nybo Andersen
- “Dietary data in the DNBC and a priori dietary patterns matrices for pregnancy diet and adolescents’ diet”, Anne Ahrendt Bjerregaard
- “Long term health consequences of gestational diabetes mellitus: A sub-cohort study in DNBC”, Sjurdur F Olsen
- “Pubertal development and mental health, the PuMa study”, Anne Gaml-Sørensen
- “How-to-make a DNBC research project and get access to the data”, Anne-Marie Nybo Andersen

10.15-10.50 Coffee break and networking

10.50 – 11.55 Session 2

Invited talks:

- “How to use data from DNBC and other European birth cohorts in federated analyses”, Demetris Avraam
- “On top of life? Life-course studies of mental health in adolescence and youth”, Katrine Strandberg-Larsen
- “Fetal exposure to endocrine disrupting chemicals and biomarkers of male fecundity, the FEPOS cohort”, Sidsel D. Hull
- “Untangling biologic and social causes of low fertility in modern societies (BIOSFER)”, Cecilia Høst Ramlau-Hansen

11.55 Closure by Cecilia Høst Ramlau-Hansen